Notice to MassMutual (formerly Hartford) Deferred Compensation Participants

A word from Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (MassMutual) which will be included with more information in your next quarterly statement:

What the Acquisition Means to Me

THERE IS NOTHING YOU NEED TO DO

Our primary objective is to ensure a smooth transition as we welcome you to MassMutual. We will maintain the high levels of service that you have come to expect.

While your retirement plan is now administered by MassMutual, there will be no immediate changes to your service contacts, phone numbers, mailing addresses, or websites at this time. You can continue to access your account at www.retire.hartfordlife.com. All of your plan's features, including investment options, will remain the same unless specific changes are made by your plan sponsor.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT

- Should you receive any electronic correspondence from MassMutual, the email will come from a new address, @massmutual.com
- As we progress into 2013, MassMutual will incrementally incorporate its brand and messaging throughout the customer experience, as applicable.
- Prior to implementing any significant changes, we will provide you with ample notice and direction.

For more information or if you have questions, please call MassMutual at 1-800-528-9009 or visit www.retire.hartfordlife.com
